Newsletter

March 2011

Greetings all. Here we are again with another masterpiece edition of the OPC newsletter.

The March meeting will be on Monday the 28th at the usual time and location, 7:00 PM, downtown at the Museum of Science and History, 122 E. second street. Entrance through the second street door.

This month

Bring your snorkel and goggles!

because a friend of OPC member Allen Campbell

Larry Babcock

will be showing some of his

Underwater photographs!

Be sure to attend and learn more about the usually unseen things that exist in the aqueous (wet) part of the world. I'm sure they will be interesting, entertaining, and eye catching. In we go. Splash!

Contest Information

The theme for February was “Something Wild in Nature”

First place went to OPC member Willie Powell for his photograph titled “Heron Dance”

Second place was awarded to OPC Member Kim Walker for her photograph titled “Yellowstone Bison”

And an Honorable Mention went to OPC Member Willie Powell for his photo titled “Blackbeard”

The meeting topics for the rest of 2011 has been set. Below is what you can look forward to for the rest of the year.

April:

Kim and David Walker will be giving an informative workshop on FIELD LIGHTING. This is lighting outside the studio. It can be outdoors under the sun or inside under other lights. Anywhere outside the studio. I prefer romance under moonlight myself but other scenes are good too (smile). Bring your camera for an informative and educational night.

May:

In May we will have an open meeting. This will be an opportunity for any member to show photos they have taken.

June:

The June meeting will be on Monday June 27. On days before the meeting, specifically Saturday June 18 and Saturday June 25, there will be photography days at the Botanical Gardens. During that time, the Day Lilies will be in bloom and the Day Lily Festival will be going on. You may photograph anything you wish, but the Day Lilies will be especially sitting up pretty.

The June meeting will be another workshop. This one will be on processing photos with Photoshop. You are encouraged to bring digital copies of photos taken at the botanical gardens for a night of learning and post processing.

July:

The July meeting will focus on member presentations. You are encouraged to bring photos taken at the botanical gardens showing the post processing techniques learned in the June meeting.

August:

The August meeting will be a portfolio workshop. The focus of this workshop will be tips and tweaks for your portfolio.

September:

In September we will have an open meeting. This will be an opportunity for any member to show photos they have taken.

October:

In October it be time once again for the famous and prestigious OPC Member's Photo Exhibition. It will be similar to the one last year and Brooke will have more details as the event gets closer.

November:

November will be the month for the portfolio contest. Bring your portfolio for judging and good luck to all.

December:

Ho Ho Ho Merry Christmas. In December it will be time again for the entertaining and delicious OPC Christmas party. There will be plenty of merrymaking and camaraderie for all and good conversation and photos to go with it. Bring food and photos to share.

And a sneak peak at January 2012

January 2012:

Portfolio winners announced. The portfolios will be critiqued and the winners announced.

Note: If unforeseen circumstances occur this schedule may change without notice.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS.

Please welcome new OPC members

Elizabeth Davis and Larry Neuner

Welcome to the club Elizabeth and Larry! Don't be shy. Come to the meetings and mix and mingle! If you have photos to show then bring those too!
